CCI Agen Delegation in India

The Indo-French Chamber of Commerce & Industry in collaboration with Club Export CIEL 47 from the Lot et Garonne district in the Aquitaine region of France welcomed a delegation to India beginning of November 2019.

The companies belonging primarily to the Agro-food and Heavy Machinery/Construction Equipment industry visited Mumbai and Delhi from the 4th -8th of November. The main objective of their visit was to understand the Indian market, develop their business and explore possible synergies.

IFCCI organised a workshop wherein the participating delegates benefited from the expertise of our member companies who shared their knowledge & savoir faire on Doing Business in India, Logistics & Supply chain management, Intellectual Property Rights and an interactive session on decoding the intercultural differences followed by collective guided visits to leading food chains such as Nature's Basket and Food hall.

Lastly customised B2B meetings were organised for each of the delegates in Mumbai and Delhi during their visit to India.
