Invest now or you would miss the bus: CM to French delegates

Business Bureau
NEW DELHI
HIGHLIGHTING the strategic advantage of Nagpur region, Maharashtra Chief Minister Devendra Fadnis on Friday told French delegates that it is almost time for them to invest here. Speaking at the Indo-French Investment Conclave, he said the Government of Maharashtra would support them. "Right now the conditions are quite favourable for investment. Maharashtra offers world-class infrastructure and an excellent investment environment. If they miss the bus, it is an opportunity that will not be available for you as I believe that your competitors would have already taken it," he said.

The concrete agenda was set at the Indo-French Investment Conclave, organized by the Indo-French Chamber of Commerce and Industry (IFCCI) in association with the Embassy of France and local business bodies near participation of more than 150 French delegates and representatives from various sectors including logistics, defence, aviation and real estate.

be obliged to the investors. Apart from this we are all set to make Nagpur airport one of the best airports in the country. It would be better than the Mumbai airport," he said. Echoing similar sentiments, Gadgil said that the State and Central Government are working hard to build an ecosystem in the region and therefore so that foreign investments could invest here. "Our Government is working in a very transparent and efficient manner which is providing benefits to all investors. The arrival of various multinational corporations in the region proves this. In addition to this, we are further building up facilities," he said.
